

Crafton Tull Sparks

architecture | engineering

Conway
Little Rock
Oklahoma City
Rogers
Russellville
Tulsa
Wichita

For Release: May 5, 2009

Westbrook Architects Becoming Part of Crafton Tull Sparks

Tulsa, OK - After eight years, Westbrook Architects, a major retail architect, will now be a part of Crafton Tull Sparks. The firm's clients include Oklahoma National Bank, Sprint, Owasso Land Trust, Post Oak Lodge, and QuikTrip.

"I am excited about the opportunities to provide our retail clients with full service architecture and engineering services," said Randy Westbrook, NCARB, vice president of retail.

The firm joined Crafton Tull Sparks as part of a strategy to provide retail architecture and engineering services to major retail companies across the nation.

"We are thrilled to have Randy and Carolyn Westbrook on our team," said Shane Hansen Fernandez, AIA, NCARB, LEED® AP, corporate director of architecture. "This is an opportunity for both of us to play a bigger role in the growth of the retail market."

Crafton Tull Sparks has 300 employees with offices in Conway, AR, Little Rock, AR, Oklahoma City, OK, Rogers, AR, Russellville, AR, Tulsa, OK and Wichita, KS. Founded in 1963, they provide planning, architectural, engineering, interior design, landscape architecture, and surveying services across the nation. Crafton Tull Sparks has demonstrated itself to be a leader in sustainable design with 44 LEED® accredited professionals.

Shelley Bowersock, Manager Marketing/PR
Crafton Tull Sparks
918-588-4026 / shelly.bowersock@craftontullsparks.com