

Conway
Little Rock
Oklahoma City
Rogers
Russellville
Tulsa
Wichita

For Immediate Release:

Crafton Tull Sparks Welcomes New Employees

Tulsa, OK – The following individuals have joined the Tulsa office of Crafton Tull Sparks, a full-service architectural and engineering firm.

Lois Berggren, LEED AP, has joined the firm as project manager. She has a bachelor's degree in architecture from the University of Oklahoma. Lois has 14 years of experience including projects such as Benton County Courthouse, Oklahoma School of Science and Math, the University of Oklahoma, Bentonville Church of Christ, Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, and Great Plains Vo-Tech.

Marcus Fairless has joined the firm as project architect. He has a bachelor's degree and master's degree in architecture from the University of Oklahoma. Marcus has a background in urban planning, sports, K-12 education and collegiate architecture.

Chris Schneider, AIA, NCARB, has joined the firm as director of education. He has bachelor's degrees in environmental design and architecture from the University of Oklahoma. With 18 years of experience, Chris has managed various architectural projects in Oklahoma and California.

Todd Wade, NCARB, has joined the firm as project manager. He has a bachelor's degree in architecture from Oklahoma State University. Todd has 15 years of experience including shopping center and mall based tenant improvement, education, corporate, technical, aviation, and retail projects.

Crafton Tull Sparks has 300 employees with offices in Conway, AR, Little Rock, AR, Oklahoma City, OK, Rogers, AR, Russellville, AR, Tulsa, OK and Wichita, KS. Founded in 1963, they provide planning, architectural, engineering, interior design, landscape architecture and surveying services across the nation.

Shelley Bowersock, Manager Marketing/PR
Crafton Tull Sparks
918-588-4026 / shelley.bowersock@craftontullsparks.com